DAYTON, Ohio, June 19, 1975 --- A collection of drawings and watercolors by Vito A. Girone will be displayed in the Kennedy Union Art Gallery at the University of Dayton, July 2 to the 31st. The exhibit will feature pencil and watercolor sketches he did while on a sabbatical leave in Italy in the spring of 1974.

Girone was associate professor of architecture for twenty years at the University of Notre Dame, and has been lecturer at the University of Kentucky since 1965. He is in private practice as a consultant in architecture and city planning. In the past he worked as designer and architect in New Jersey, New York City, South Bend, Indiana and Lexington, Kentucky. His designs have won many competitions and received national recognition.
